Stennis terminal ready for passenger service

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

The passenger terminal at Stennis Air Park is ready for business, declared Port and Harbor director Harold "Buz" Olsen Monday.

The commission was told that the airport committee toured the facility that morning, deeming interior transformation work of the former county school district offices complete.

"We can start marketing the facility," Olsen stated.

Marketing, he explained, means contacting interested airlines, travel promoters and support services for the establishment of businesses and stations to serve anticipated limited passenger flights.

"Like any other airport terminal," he commented, "there will be a lounge and concession area. We have already been contacted by one car rental agent."

"With completion of the terminal, we can now begin soliciting leases for all necessary support services."

Olsen said the commission is aiming for November 2 as a first flight arrival date. "One agent we have spoken with has a flight originating from Dallas ready to go on that day."

According to Olsen, renovation of the building has cost the commission $2,050 to date. The commission is presently seeking posters representative of Hancock County to frame and display within the welcome facility.

"With the arrival of Stennis' first passengers we will be establishing an identity for the air-

Felicity St.

Sidewalks proposed as remedy to traffic problem

BY TRACI BONNEY

In all likelihood, Felicity Street will not be made a dead-end.

After an hour-long City Council workshop Tuesday with residents of Felicity and nearby streets about their concerns over possible casino traffic hazards, Bay St. Louis Mayor Eddie Favre gave a list of recommendations to avert potential problems. Closing the street wasn't one of them.

Felicity Street residents had asked last week that the street be closed to through traffic to prevent the possibility that a drunk driver from the casino might injure or kill a child.

They reiterated that concern Tuesday, with Lana Noonan understanding it by telling of two separate conversations she has had with a casino worker and a patron.

Noonan said the casino worker claimed that patrons receive free drinks as long as they are gambling (unless they want a specially mixed drink; then

Few improvements shown in Hancock Co. road plan

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

Copies of 1990 and 1992 amendments to four-year county road plans reveal little to no changes in road status or changes in designations from gravel to paved.

According to the 1990 road plan, the county has 541.29 miles of roads. State and federal roads are not included in this figure.

Of the 541.29 miles, 306.83 are blacktop; 78.59 are clay/gravel; 2.25 are clay; 45.95 are sandy clay; 27.53 are sand; 57.56 are dirt; and 22.59 are planned but not opened.

The 1992 county road plan gives the same numbers with the exception of clay/gravel which increased by 3.01 miles to 81.59 miles, additional roads accepted by the county in 1991.

The majority of work completed within the past two years has been in repairs and overlay, as reported by road superintendent Sam Cuevas.

Since 1990, 110 miles of roads have been resealed and resurfaced; 6.2 miles of county roads overlaid; and 8.9 miles of Beach Boulevard overlaid.

Since 1990, four bridges have been installed, replacing culverts on Fiber and Trout streets, and replacing wooden bridges on Annar-Necaise and Old Joe Moran roads.

Since 1990, one new road was blacktopped, Road E between Hancock High School and the Hancock County Vo-Tech Center at Stennis Airport.

Since 1988, Cuevas added, approximately 25 miles of gravel was placed in two phases throughout the county.

Kidnapper identified

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

The man who allegedly stole a vehicle containing three children from a Waveland Circle K on U.S. 90, 11:57 p.m. Monday, has been identified as Ivory J. Bryant, 32, of New Orleans.

Waveland Police Chief James Varnell reported Bryant has an extensive criminal record with the New Orleans Police Department (NOPD) which led to his identification by fingerprint.

Varnell said, Bryant carried no identification and gave a false name upon arrest. Because NOPD fingerprints every arrest, it was just a matter of checking through their records.

According to Varnell, Pascagoula residents, Terry Hudgins, 23, and Bobbie Ann James, 22, returning from Louisiana Monday in a 1979 van, stopped at the I-10/Hwy. 607 rest stop with their three passengers, Kevin Deese, 7, Brian Hudgins, 6, and Katie James, 2.

At this time a man carrying a gas can approached them and requested a ride.

They agreed to help the man, and driving to the Circle K convenience store on U.S. 90 in Waveland, stopped at the gas pumps and got out of the car.

James told police she got out of the van and began pumping gas while Hudgins said he stepped out of the van to stretch

I-10 overpass lane closure slated Monday

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

According to Lynn Lofton, State Highway Department officer, the closure of the eastbound lane of the I-10 Pearl River overpass is expected Monday.

All traffic will be diverted through the westbound lane for two months as work begins on the replacement of the deteriorated overpass grid deck with concrete, making it a fixed span.

Following an estimated two months, work will begin on the westbound side and traffic will share the eastbound lane.

Addition work to the bridge will include replacement of all support members; the repair and painting of deteriorated areas; replacement of the existing center guard rail with a concrete rail; placement of land impact crash absorbers at bridge approaches.

Loads 10 feet and over will be re-routed between Waveland and Slidell, along Highways 604, 43 and I-10/I-59.

It is suggested by the transportation department that some commuters may wish to take Hwy. 90 to US-190 as an alternate route to Slidell.

When driving I-10 through the construction area, vehicles are asked to reduced speed for the safety of workers on site.

his legs. Both said they saw the man step out of the van, but jump back in and drive off.

As the man was pulling the van out of the pumping station area, Hudgins said he ran after the van, grabbing the passenger window. Hudgins was dragged along the cement until he was able to pull himself through the window.

Once inside, Varnell said Hudgins reported to have struggled with the man, knocking a weapon, gun or knife, outside the van.

Meanwhile, James called for help. Two Hancock County Sheriff's Department units, a Waveland police car and a Mississippi Highway Patrol car responded and pursued the van which was stopped eastbound on I-10 by the 6-mile mark.

Sheriff's investigator Nathan Hoda reported prior the incident, the highway patrol received a report of a man with a gas can beating in the window of a parked van at the I-10/Hwy. 607 rest area as the owner of the van slept.

The noise woke the driver, who drove off as the man with the gas can clung to the broken window, finally releasing himself from the vehicle, said Hoda.

Attempts to contact the highway patrolman who reported the incident were unsuccessful prior to press time.

Varnell said the children appeared fine, while Hudgins was taken to Hancock Medical Center for treatment of knee injuries.

A 1980 Volkswagen Rabbit, presumed to have been driven by Bryant, was found abandoned off Hwy. 607. The tag, according to Varnell, was no longer valid and ownership of the vehicle has not been established at this time.

Bryant is incarcerated in the Hancock County Justice Facility under a $100,000 bond. He is charged with three counts of kidnapping, aggravated assault and grand larceny.

Varnell reported, Bryant will appear today in Waveland Municipal Court to be assigned an attorney and a date for a preliminary hearing.

port," he added.

"A recent survey, compiled by the commission, shows an overwhelming majority of Hancock residents fly out of New Orleans. A future plan may be to establish connecting flights."

Olsen reported a 139 study required for FAA limited passenger licensing is compiled and ready for forwarding to all required agencies.

He said any and all groups or facilities which would be called upon in case of emergency are required to be allowed comment. Upon receipt of those comments, the commission must then complete the study final draft for submission to the FAA.

Should the licensing process not be completed by the November projection, but as long as all else is in place, a waiver can be obtained, permitting activities to begin, Olsen added.

He reported the commission entered into a signed contract with the Kiln Volunteer Fire Department for service 15 minutes prior to all arrivals and departures; a mutual aid agreement with NASA for addition help if needed; and the near completion of established ground communications with the Gulfport Airport tower.

The commission directed Olsen to investigate the purchase of a 1978 crash truck from the Richmond, Va. airport. The vehicle, estimated at a cost of $5,000, was said to have 12,000 miles and to be in need of brakes.

Airport committee chairman Pete Beebe said a new crash truck of comparable size and service was listed at a cost of $67,500.

County reopens Pearlington landfill

The Hancock County Road and Maintenance Department announced the reopening of the Pearlington Landfill to trash deposits this week.

The Pearlington Landfill was only open to household garbage disposal for the past few weeks as work was completed to meet DEQ compliance.

The landfill, one of two within the county, is located on Highway 604 and is open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.; the other being the Standard dump located on C.C. Road off Highway 603 is open 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. Both operate seven days a week, closing only on Thanksgiving and Christmas days.

ation of $215,000-$300,000 for the widening and improving of the entrance to Diamondhead along Aloha Drive.

The Aloha Drive project, along with the upgrading of CC Road in Standard, has been in easement negotiations for the past two years, according to the board of supervisors office. Both of these projects were designated in the 1992 road plan.

Cuevas added, the county is currently involved in a State Aid project for the paving of Texas Flat Road from Highway 603 to McLeod Park at a cost of $500,000 (partially paid by county) and the completion of Texas Flat Road from McLeod Park to Flat Top Road to be completed with a $5 million state grant.

A final project, currently planned by the road superintendent, is the widening and improving of the road from Highway 90 to Port Bienville Industrial Park.

The 1992 plan includes placement of base material build up on roads throughout the county in preparation for gravel applications; the paving of approximately 200 miles of roads, over 4-5 years, completing all roads within occupied residential areas; and a maintenance program for all paved roads which designates resurfacing or resurfacing at seven-year intervals, as needed.

The plan names Aloha Drive and CC Road in its projected projects, along with the creation of a master plan for drainage for the southern portion of the county is in place and priorities in this plan are being followed.

Proposed projects under the 1992 plan also direct crews to install, inspect and repair or replace culverts on a regular they must pay, but only a dollar), and the patron spoke of being "buzzed" when leaving the casino at 2 a.m. after gambling all night.

"I lost a grandmother and a good friend to drunk drivers," Noonan said. "Problems? You think you'll have problems if you close Felicity to through traffic? You don't know what problems are until you have to take someone you love and put them in the ground because they were killed by a drunk driver."

Favre, the Council and the residents present who oppose closing the street — and there were a number at the meeting who were against the idea — all acknowledged that the possibility exists that a drunk driver could hurt or kill someone. But, they pointed out, that could happen anywhere, any time on any road.

As far as the free drinks were concerned, people can get those at weddings and other celebrations as well as the casino, Favre and others said.

Some steps have been taken to reduce traffic on Felicity. A "No Left Turn" sign was installed at the intersection of Felicity and the Casino Magic access road to keep patrons leaving the casino from using Felicity.

In addition, police have been monitoring the traffic flow in that area and issuing tickets to speeders and other violators.

SIDEWALKS

Favre said the city may step up its plans to install sidewalks from North Bay Elementary School on Dunbar beyond the curve to the Melody Lane/Corinth Drive area and on Felicity from Dunbar almost to the casino access road.

Children living on Felicity currently walk to and from North Bay on the side of the street. Sidewalks would provide a safer route.

Councilman Jim Thrifflay had told those at the meeting that the city has allocated $100,000 for sidewalk restoration and construction. Favre added that the city had planned to start the sidewalk project after the next year, but he is recommending immediate implementation.

"We're not sure which side of street the sidewalks will be on at this point, because we aren't totally sure which side we have the most right of way on, but we plan to proceed with the necessary surveys to determine that."

"We hope to approve the survey contract at next Tuesday's regular meeting, so we can proceed in securing the rights of way and get going on this as soon as possible."

Meanwhile, he added, the city will continue police monitoring of the traffic flow and speed, and plans to install additional traffic and directional signs along the route to and from the casino to identify for visitors the directions to Hwy. 90 and to the historic district.

"We also plan to work with the school board about the possibility that children living within the one-mile radius of North Bay will be able to ride the bus."

That idea had been given at the workshop meeting by Mary Ann Benvenutti, who said she thought state law allows such an exception to the one-mile-from-school rule if it can be proven the children are in danger if they have to walk to and from school.

Bay High's Tigers continue their winning ways as they are now 5-1 for the season and 3-1 in Division VIII Class 3-A competition.

It was an easy game against Vancleave last Friday for Bay High as they were 42-0 victors in a homecoming tilt.

This Friday, Bay High will face stiffer competition when they play host to the Hancock High Hawks.

Hancock always a 'thorn in the side' of Bay High in recent years will see a much improved Tiger team.

This has to be the game of the season in Hancock County in high school football.

J. D. McCullough Stadium should be overflowing on both sides of the field for this important game.

In all probability the winner of this game will be the 1992 high school football champs of Hancock County.

The game has another importance too, as Bay High's head coach Rocky Gaudin was an assistant for many years to Hancock High's veteran coach Irvin Favre.

Hancock was stung last week by a 14-13 setback at the hands of Pearl River Central, and the Hawks do not like to lose two games in a row.

Winless St. Stanislaus will have to do everything under the sun, as the saying goes, to stay on the field with the d'Iberville Warriors at Rock-A-Chaw Stadium Friday night.

It will be a conference game and d'Iberville has a 4-3 overall and 2-0 record in Division VIII Class 4-A.

The Rocks have been improving as the season goes, but they will have to eliminate every turnover, if they expect to stay close to d'Iberville Friday.

Friday night is the annual "Toast to the Coast" fundraiser by Coast Episcopal Schools.

The events begin at 6:30 p.m. and will include specialty dishes from restaurants along the coast.

Entertainment will be provided as well as the showcasing the work of 40 Gulf Coast artists.

There will be a live and also a silent auction with Larry McCool as auctioneer.

The evening is to end with dancing under the stars.

Those seeking further information can call Coast Episcopal Schools, 452-9442. Tickets are $45 in advance or $50 at the door.

Passage of Amendment No. 5 could mean more money for public schools

By Dick Molpus
Secretary of State

Our public schools could be million-dollar winners if Mississippi voters approve constitutional amendment No. 5 on Nov. 3. The amendment, Senate Concurrent Resolution 552, asks voters to change Section 211 of our state constitution to allow a 16th section oil and gas lease to continue as long as the well is producing.

As you may recall, the U.S. tradition of reserving lands to support the public schools began in colonial times. Most counties in Mississippi have 16th section lands, except for an area in the north part of the state where a treaty with the Chickasaw Indians allowed the land to be sold.

Today, local boards of education have the responsibility to manage 16th section lands under the general supervision of the Secretary of State's Office. In Fiscal Year 1991, revenue from leases and investments on some 642,000 acres of 16th section lands totalled more than $27 million.

PRODUCTION HELPS REDUCE TAXES

Oil and gas production on 16th section lands has been an important source of revenue for our public schools. Royalties from oil and gas production have produced more than $50 million in the past 10 years—reducing the tax burden on our citizens.

An oil and gas lease, whether on school lands or private property, usually extends beyond the lease term if the well is producing.

However, in 1991 the Mississippi Supreme Court interpreted Section 211 of the constitution as prohibiting oil and gas leases on 16th section lands from extending beyond the lease term, even if the well were producing.

Although the ruling was legally sound, the practical effect was to make 16th section lands an unattractive investment to the oil and gas industry for exploration—jeopardizing millions of dollars in income to the public schools.

Amendment No. 5 on the Nov. 3 ballot would permit a 16th section oil and gas lease to continue for as long as the well is producing.

I urge each of you to vote "yes" on Amendment No. 5, whether you have children in the public schools or not. The school trust lands were set aside by our forefathers to generate revenue for our public schools. With wise stewardship and sound management practices, we can generate the money our schools need for new classrooms and safe school buses without having to raise taxes to do so.

If anyone has questions or comments about Amendment No. 5 or 16th section lands, call the Public Lands Division at 359-6373.

WASHINGTON REPORT

By Senator
Thad Cochran

Cochran notes increase in federal education funds

U. S. Senator Thad Cochran said federal funding for key elementary and secondary education programs has increased in the bill to fund the departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education for the fiscal year that begins Oct. 1.

The appropriation bill approved by the Senate provides $31.5 billion for federal education programs, a $2 billion increase over last year's funding level.

"Federal funding for education has increased more than 40 percent over the last four years," said Cochran, a member of the Senate Appropriations Committee, "and the increase this bill provides for education is one of the best investments we can make."

Funding for Chapter I, the largest federal program for elementary and secondary school students was funded at $6.7 billion, a $65 million increase over fiscal 1992. The Mississippi share of this remedial reading, math and science program will total $130 million, said Cochran.

Head Start, the program for preschoolers, was funded at $2.8 billion, a $600 million increase over last year. The Mississippi share of Head Start is over $70 million.

The bill also provides $4 million for the National Writing Project, a program Senator Cochran proposed in legislation two years ago to help improve students' writing skills. The Star Schools program, which provides subjects to students via satellite, was increased to $25.4 million from the $17.4 million appropriated last year.

Other programs in Mississippi that are funded include Maternal and Child Health Block Grant, Preventive Health Block Grant, and the State Offices of Rural Health, an initiative begun by Senator Cochran. Also included in the bill is another Cochran initiative to shift more health research funding to smaller universities and colleges in states such as Mississippi.

"The funding for health and education initiatives in the bill is designed to improve education programs and increase access to health care services in communities throughout America," Cochran said.

Senator Cochran has been named to the House and Senate conference committee which will meet to resolve differences in the two versions of the bill.

EYES ON MISSISSIPPI

Hillary Clinton pleasant to talk to one-on-one

If I had believed all the demonizing of Hillary Clinton I heard at the Republican National Convention, I would have been ill-prepared for the completely engaging, unpretentious, amiable woman who may very well be this nation's next First Lady.

Meeting and chatting with Hillary Clinton on her visit to Jackson the other day was a genuinely pleasant experience, not at all what one might have come to expect from the characterizations of her as a hard-edged, smarter-than-you, professional woman lacking in humor and patience.

One-on-one, she was the same smiling, open-faced person who captured and held enthralled both young and old Mississippians at Murrah High School, then later a rather remarkable gathering of 500 Democrats hastily assembled on the lawn of her old friend, Winifred Green.

It of course was somewhat poetic and did not go unnoticed that Green's home is on Pennsylvania Avenue. Her friendship with Hillary goes back some years to both working in regional groups to upgrade Southern education.

Indicative of the kind of admirers Hillary Clinton has here was the presence of Eudora Welty, Mississippi's Pulitzer Prize winning novelist, and noted black author Margaret Walker Alexander at the Green home.

Inevitably, there were some Clinton listeners who went away mumbling that they wished she was at the head of the ticket instead of her husband.

Perhaps that indicates how formidable an asset Bill Clinton has in Hillary, and why the Republicans went to such extremes at their convention in trying to discredit her. Evidently they found out Hillary-bashing backfired on them, because you have not heard much of it lately.

There's no question the Arkansas governor's wife represents a new generation of women in America who threaten the icons of machismo which are revered by the hard right.

It's still difficult for many in our society to accept the reality that women today can pursue separate professional careers from their spouses and still be successful mothers and nurturers of a strong family environment.

Not only has Hillary Clinton been able to maintain that delicate balance between career and home, but she has developed going back some years a national reputation as an activist against abuse and exploitation of children and women.

Significantly, her dedication to child advocacy work began when she was at Yale Law School and was inspired by a speech by Marian Wright Edelman, founder of the Children's Defense Fund. After she graduated from Yale, in 1973 Hillary joined the staff of the CDF and began a fast friendship with Edelman that continues today.

I had quick rapport with Hillary when I told her of having become a friend and something of a confidant to a young black woman attorney named Marian Wright who came to Jackson in the mid-60s as counselor of the NAACP Legal Defense Fund in Mississippi.

On several occasions I visited Marian Wright in her office upstairs of a dry goods store on Parish Street, the black business street, and gave her some insight into the thinking of the white establishment, and particularly the hard-line segregationist attorneys arrayed against her in school desegregation cases.

Poetically, Marian Wright met Peter Edelman when he came to Jackson with Sen. Robert Kennedy in 1967 to investigate reports of hunger and malnutrition in the Delta. A year later Wright and Edelman were married.

When Hillary Clinton spoke to the gathering of Mississippi Democrats the other day, she brought a message that hit home with the local folks, stressing the similarity of economic interests and fundamental problems both Arkansas and Mississippi have in common.

In Bill Clinton, she said, "you will have a president who won't show up in the Delta during election year." (An obvious reference to President Bush's recent appearance in Greenville.)

The doors of the White House, she added, "will be open to Mississippians."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Waveland city employees advised customers of garbage fees

Dear Editor:

I am not a constituent of Alderman Stan Weidman, nor have I been to any Waveland board meetings; however, after reading your article of Oct. 8 on garbage fees, I feel I must comment.

For the board to blame Mr. Weidman for the controversy over the proposed garbage fee is just ridiculous. Before Mr. Weidman's letter appeared in The Sea Coast Echo, city employees in the Water and Gas Department were telling customers this fee would show up on the next bill. Did Mr. Weidman tell the city employees to inform customers of this?

Barbara Moody
Waveland

Garbage fee was planned, Waveland resident believes

To the Editor:

Some remarks are in order regarding the City Council meeting which dealt with the garbage collection fee in Waveland. It is obvious that Mayor Stella Frilot thinks Waveland citizens are mostly non-thinkers like some aldermen.

For 25 years I was involved in municipal finance, including budgeting, and in all those years I never saw a budget that contained line items where there was no intent to implement them.

After the organized protest the mayor and two aldermen tried to explain that they didn't really mean what they had previously approved.

As part of her explanation the Mayor lectured her audience on the principles of municipal accounting and budgeting. To anyone with expertise in the subjects, it was obvious that she didn't have the faintest idea of what she was talking about.

Great thanks are due Alderman Weidman and some alert citizens that this grab at our pockets was stopped before it could be sneaked over on us. It is a prime example of the old expression that "the price of liberty is eternal vigilance." The tragedy of the situation is that apparently we have to put up with two more years of this nonsense.

STREET TALK

Did you watch the presidential debate, and what are your comments on it?

"I think Bush and Clinton were well rehearsed, where Perot made the most sense. It's a shame that he got out of the race because he lost his credibility, and I think he would have the courage of his convictions."

Hazel Luksa Lakeshore

"I believe Bush won. There was only one time he got in trouble, when he questioned the patriotism of the Democratic candidate, but he came back and explained what he meant. Perot put a lot of color in it. I think Perot is running to help Bush. I think that is why he is running."

A.F. Whitehead Bay St. Louis

"I think Bush won it. I think Clinton was too smooth and I think Perot knows a lot about business, but I don't feel he is polished enough to be presidential material."

Ruth Berthelot Bay St. Louis

"So far, as the three candidates were concerned, I thought Bush and Clinton were pretty close. Bush I felt was most sincere. Perot, I feel said nothing."

Clarence Ladner Bay St. Louis

"I thought it was interesting. All candidates seemed to have had the opportunity to represent their positions. Bush and Clinton said pretty much what they already stated, almost like they were reading from a script. Perot was the most spontaneous, with his one liners and zingers."

Br. Bosco Bay St. Louis

"I thought it was a good debate, they didn't quarrel, they controlled themselves and addressed the I'm going to listen to the other debates, I like Bush, but I haven't really decided."

Delores Hotard Bay St. Louis

"I thought it was a pretty good debate. I feel Perot came out on top. He seems to be an honest man. He ran a business for years. He made lots of money and if he can do that for the United States I think he will be a good man."

Russell Eldreth Bay St. Louis

"I watched part of it and I hate to see who's going to win the election. I was not impressed with any of them. Perot says he is going to do this, but he never said exactly what he is going to do. Bush is all talk. Now that he is running for re-election he is going to make all these changes. He's been waiting until now? He had four years. Clinton, I'm not sure of I like his health plan, but he sounds like the rest, making all these promises."

District 46

Jerry Ladner asks this question: Do you know how many people cannot afford Health Insurance?

I believe that everyone deserves Healthcare, regardless of their financial status.

We need Legislation to correct injustices caused by the current healthcare laws.

As your State Senator representing District No. 46, I will do everything within my power to see that everyone can afford Health Insurance.

I will also look at laws that will help eliminate all of the unnecessary lawsuits involving healthcare and also work to see that hospital and doctors' rates are reasonable.

I BELIEVE THERE ARE FAR TOO MANY LAWSUITS IN OUR COURTS TODAY, and all this does is make lawyers richer and helps to increase healthcare costs.

I feel that only 20% of lawsuits are necessary, and the other 80% should not even be filed, and I will work towards legislation to eliminate those unnecessary lawsuits that tie up our courts.

Did you know, in the Mississippi Senate there are 44 Democrats and 8 Republicans responsible for making our laws? The time is now to send an Independent from District No. 46 to represent us, the people.

Lifesaving taught by Bay firefighters

BY T. H. (DOC) TOUPS

Bay High teacher Jane Lamb provides her students with a bridge between real world work experience and classroom academics. She is a distributive education teacher whose program pairs students with private employers, as part of their education. Their grades reflect a combination of classroom achievement and employer evaluation.

The State Department of Vocational Education has mandated that students in distributive education become certified in cardio-pulmonary resuscitation, or CPR.

CPR is a lifesaving technique which can bring heart attack or accident victims back from the brink of death. It involves a combination of artificial respiration and manual heart circulation and can represent the difference between life or death in certain job-site accidents.

"I think that this is something everyone should learn and I'm excited that the state has mandated CPR instruction for all Co-Op students," Mrs. Lamb said, as her students began their first instruction session.

Bay St. Louis Firefighter Louis Prendergast provided the instruction and used a special mannequin to teach the technique. His Monday demonstration coincided with Bay High's "Hippie Day," and scores of period-dressed students took their turn practicing on the dummy.

The CPR instruction is only one part of what the school terms its "Personal Safety and Security Unit." This is an education segment which helps to prepare students for some of the hazards they may encounter in a work situation. In other parts of the program, Bay St. Louis Police Sergeant David Sellier instructed students on driver safety, shoplifting prevention and personal security.

Chief Andrew Lizana of the Bay St. Louis Fire Department and Firefighter Gail Roy introduced the students to fire safety, fire extinguishers, the combustibility of household chemicals and firefighting. A Heimlich Maneuver session, to assist choking victims, is scheduled for the near future.

Private sector employers interested in employing a distributive education student are invited to contact Lamb at 467-6023.

Upon re-opening of the office's front entrance, expected Monday or Tuesday, hours will be changed to Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.; 2:25 to 5 p.m.; and Saturdays, 9 a.m. to noon. ## United Way kickoff

Myles addresses Hancock volunteers

BY ELLIS CUEVAS
The United Way of South Mississippi's Hancock County volunteers held their 1992 campaign kickoff Friday at the Diamondhead Country Club. Featured speaker was Dorothy Myles, a new member of the United Way of America's board of directors and a past president and directors board member of the Jackson County United Way.

The Hancock County operating committee's campaign chairman is Don Henderson, Hancock Medical Center administrator; Gwen Meyers of Bay St. Louis is first chair; and Toni Larroux of GE Plastics is second chair.

Gwen Meyers and Lisa Rodriguez served as co-chairmen for the Hancock kickoff. Ronnie Bates, manager of Mississippi Power Company, is the overall chairman of the United Way of South Mississippi (Hancock, Harrison and Pearl River counties), which has a goal of $1,100,000.

Michael Haas, 1992 Hancock chairman, recognized the 1992 Hancock pacesetters.

Hilda Bourg, Hancock operating chairman, welcomed the agency heads and all participants to the dutch-treat breakfast. She also thanked everyone who has helped with the United Way in Hancock County since its beginning some 28 years ago.

In her comments Myles said, "The challenges for us are great. Pressing social problems demand greater and more intense action. While it is important for us to recognize the past, it is critical that we realize we cannot meet the needs of today and the future by dwelling or totally depending on those practices from the past.

"The challenges that face us as a United Way demand that we be innovative, that we develop new strategies, that we build an even stronger relationship with all segments of the community—business, government, labor, and civic groups.

"United Way must come to the forefront and accept the challenge. We cannot launch our assault on illiteracy, to feed the hungry, to house the homeless, fight the war on drug and alcohol abuse, marshal our combined resources to address the problem of child care, and the needs of the elderly.

"There is no shortage of problems which demand our attention. United Way has been called upon to help set America's human service agenda. We must continue to be the vanguard in helping people help others."

The United Way is a non-profit, volunteer organization designed to channel a community's energies and resources to help others in need.

Ludwigs make yard a mini-refuge

BY T.H. TOUPS
David and Virginia Ludwig of Diamondhead are nature lovers who decided to bring some of nature's delights to their own backyard.

The couple applied to the National Wildlife Federation to participate in its Back Yard

Wildlife Habitat Program. The program seeks to "establish a number of mini-refuges where wildlife may find quality habitat."

Ludwig said his neighborhood abounds with wild animals. "We have deer, fox, raccoons, squirrels, opossums, armadillos and all kinds of birds. The day we were trying to figure out where hurricane Andrew was going to hit, we had an alligator take up residence in the lake behind our house."

Large lots are not necessary to establish a mini-refuge. The Ludwigs' lot, approximately 3/4 acre, can support a wide variety of species.

Those interested in turning their property into a mini-refuge may contact the National Wildlife Federation at 1400 16th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036-2266.

Where it goes

Hancock Operating Committee directors, Gwen Meyers, left, and Lisa Rodriguez, divide a line of 100 dollar bills to show what portion of donations to the United Way of South Mississippi remains in the area for agencies funded. Some 85 percent of the monies collected goes to the 52 charitable and community service organizations for people in Hancock, Harrison and Pearl River counties. Meyers and Rodriguez were the co-chairmen for the Dutch-treat breakfast held at the Diamondhead Country Club. (Echo staff photo by Ellis Cuevas)

Campaign underway

A barometer shows the United Way of South Mississippi with a little over 25 percent of its $1,100,000 goal for the counties of Hancock, Harrison and Pearl River. The Hancock community kickoff guest speaker was Dorothy Miles of Pascagoula, left, member of the United Way of America board of directors. ## Flu shots Vaccine available at local health dept.

Many people expect every year to spend a week or two in bed with a fever, chills and body aches from influenza.

What those people don't realize is that 788 Mississippians died last year from influenza and its most common complication, pneumonia.

"Influenza isn't always a minor illness, especially for senior citizens," said Dr. Ed Thompson, state epidemiologist. "Coupled with pneumonia, it continues to be one of the top five causes of death in people 65 years of age and older."

The Mississippi State Department of Health, with support from the Mississippi Chapter of The American Lung Association, encourages Mississippians to visit their county health department or private physician to get the influenza vaccine and protect themselves against the virus.

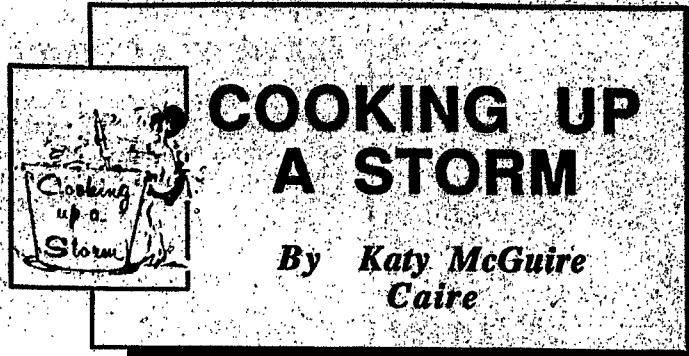

Thompson said while the vaccine isn't 100 percent effective, it's still the best way to avoid the disease. The vaccine provides protection against common influenza strains during the current season, but immunity isn't permanent. Health officials recommend a new shot each year because the vaccine changes yearly to protect against current viral strains.

MSDH offers flu shots before flu season; the best time to get the shot is in October or early November. Flu season began early last year, but usually starts around December and can last through April.

One major change this year is

Adult dance set at St. Clare

The Saints and Sinners adult dance will be Saturday, October 24, from 8 p.m. until midnight at St. Clare Parish Hall, South Beach Boulevard, Waveland. Music will be provided by the Shamrocks of New Orleans.

Those expletives (most unladylike sounds) were coming from me, I must confess, as I looked over Sunday's copy of my column in the Echo; I went to utter something nicer, such as, "Oh, dear me," or words to the effect!

For, in that column on pork, instead of the "30 per cent leaner pork of today, which I had earlier typed up, it appeared in print as a measly "5 per cent leaner," thanks to whatever devious gremlins lurk in dark corners of newspaper offices around the country!

Quite a difference! At any rate, when I had simmered down, I worked off the excess energy by simmering a sauce on the stove!

Banging saucepans and clattering spoons is a wonderful outlet! With Oktoberfest celebrations all round, it's time to cook up some good German dishes, such as hot potato salad and sauerbraten, that wondrously spicy roast, or Wiener schnitzel and so on. Here on the Coast, as elsewhere in our country, most usually celebrate Oktoberfest, October, the month from which it takes its name.

The original Oktoberfest is, of course, a long standing tradition of Germany, a festival blessing the autumn harvest, which draws several millions of celebrants to Munich each fall. The Munich celebration starts earlier than those of far smaller scale in this country. It begins in mid-September, so that the people may get in two full weeks of frivolity before they begin the task of officially bringing in the crops. Whatever the reason, it is one of Europe's "biggest bashes," with huge quantities of sausages and pork knuckles and sauerkraut and so on and so on, all washed down with gallons and gallons and gallons of beer!

And, one of my favorites is: WIENER SCHNITZEL.

Originally made with veal scallops (thin cutlets) this is also made these days with pork scallops or turkey breast scallops, pounding them thin as needed. I make them with the pork scallops. Here's:

WIENER SCHNITZEL
2 lbs. thin pork chops or cutlets, pounded thin (6 chops)
Pepper, salt to your taste
3/4 cup dry bread crumbs
2 eggs, beaten
1/4 or less cup butter or margarine
2 Tblsp. lemon juice
3 shelled, hard cooked eggs
A few anchovy fillets, optional

Bottled capers as desired
Sprinkle the scallops with pepper and salt, then dip into crumbs and next into beaten egg, and once again into crumbs. Let stand for 15 minutes, for coating to adhere. Saute in hot butter, in a large skillet, on both sides, until golden.

Cover, and cook over low heat for 20 or so minutes until tender. Just before serving, pour lemon juice over and garnish with egg slices, a few rolled anchovies and capers. (6 servings)

You may omit the garnish of the cooked sliced eggs, and skimp on the butter in the interest of your diet.

Organizers of the Mississippi Beach Travel and Tourism Symposium have announced six workshops to be presented Oct. 15 at the Coast Convention Center in Biloxi.

The six workshops and key speakers include: Packaging and Marketing Tours with Don Gleason, manager, International Wholesale Division, Walt Disney Attractions.

Working with the Air Lines with Bruce Frallic, manager, Biloxi/Gulfport Regional Airport and participating airlines, Northwest, Continental, American and Atlantic South East Airlines.

Mississippi Coast Gaming Attractions with Jim McCool, Economic Development Department, Mississippi Power Company and participating casino operators in Harrison and Hancock counties.

In addition to the workshop sessions, the travel symposium will feature presentations by travel industry executives on the future of the Mississippi Gulf Coast as a travel destination and will address new travel related business opportunities stimulated by legal gaming.

Travis Tanner, executive vice president, Walt Disney World Resorts and Don Gleason, manager, International Wholesale Division, Walt Disney Attractions, will be featured speakers during the morning and luncheon sessions.

Other representatives of travel-related government agencies and industry executives with the airlines, motor coach industry, railroads and National Park Service will also address the general assembly.

The symposium is sponsored by the Harrison County Tourism Commission in cooperation with the Gulf Coast Chamber of Commerce, Harrison County Development Commission, Coast Coliseum Commission and Mississippi Power Company.

According to Bob LeBlanc, executive director of the Tourism Commission, these agencies want to help the travel industry in Mississippi and neighboring states deal with the expanding travel business along the Mississippi Gulf Coast stimulated by legal gaming.

"We feel we have a two-year window of opportunity to make or break the area as a large-scale domestic and international travel destination," LeBlanc said.

The symposium includes the industry presentations, lunch and refreshments at the Convention Center and afternoon workshops dealing with travel and tourism for the cost of $25 per person.

Registration is open to the public and can be made by calling The Gulf Coast Chamber of Commerce at 863-2933.

College Football Highlights

For October 17

Saturday will not only be the mid-point of the 1992 college football season, but it will also be a day of reckoning for many of the top-ranked teams in the country. Check the schedule: Alabama, Boston College, Colorado, Florida State, Georgia Tech, Oklahoma, Penn State, Southern California, Syracuse, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia all face major tests.

First priority has to focus on the Southeast Conference match-up between the two No. 1 teams in the conference, Alabama and Tennessee. The game will be played in Knoxville, a particularly big plus for the Volunteers. However, Tennessee hasn't beaten the Crimson Tide in six years, that being a 16-14 win in 1985. Since that time, Alabama has rolled up 205 points to the Vols' 124, the Tide winning last fall 24-19. Tennessee has had two huge wins to date, a 34-31 thriller over Georgia and a 31-14 licking of Florida. Alabama hasn't really been tested. It's time for the Crimson domination to come to an end... Tennessee.

Through games of October 3rd, the forecasting average smiled a little brighter. We picked 705 right, 242 wrong for an average of .744.

Boston College has had a week off to prepare for its big invasion of Penn State. The Eagles were tied by West Virginia two weeks ago, but they remain undefeated. The Nittany Lions are coming off a major battle last week with Miami. BC just might be a let-down. Penn State is at home, and the last time the Lions lost to the Eagles was in 1983. The score, 27-17. Penn State should win this one.

Colorado entertains Oklahoma in the first of three tough Big Eight assignments for both teams. It's almost too close to call, but we'll lean very gently toward the Buffaloes.

North Carolina hosts Virginia's powerful Cavaliers in the Atlantic Coast Conference feature game. Virginia looks to be too strong.

How about this schedule to lose sleep over: West Virginia's next three opponents are Syracuse, Penn State and Miami. Sleep well.

Tigers vs. Hawks

BHS hopes to break Hawk jinx

BY RANDY PONDER

More is at stake than a mere win or loss Friday when the Bay High Tigers host the Hancock Hawks in a non-conference football game. School pride and the city-county championship is on the line. To say this is a big game is an understatement.

Tiger coach Rocky Gaudin has never beaten his old team guided by former mentor Irvin Favre. Hancock has won the last five meetings over out-matched Tiger squads.

Gaudin, in his third year at the Tiger helm, has turned around a struggling program, not only at the varsity level, but also the junior varsity, 9th grade and the 7th and 8th grade teams. They all have winning records. The entire program is back on track.

The Tigers are 5-1 overall and 3-1 in District 8 Class 3-A. Their only loss was to East Marion, 10-7, on a last second field goal in a game that could have gone either way.

Bay High has outscored their last two opponents 91-6. Last week Leroy Hawkins gained 175 yards and two touchdowns on nine carries as the Tigers shut out the Vancleave Bulldogs 42-0.

The real strength of this team is its defense and the play of the special teams. The Tigers have allowed only 40 points in their first six games. That's less than seven points per game average.

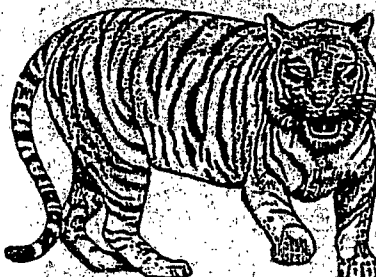

The Hawks will be the big test. "I have all the respect in the world for the Hancock coaching staff and their players," Gaudin stated. "We will face an established program which has been one of the most consistent winners at all levels on the Coast for many years."

In the Vancleave game, three different Bay High players intercepted Bulldog passes as the Tigers held Vancleave to just six yards of total offense. Two weeks earlier, four blocked punts led to Tiger TDs and a 49-6 blasting of Purvis to ruin the Tornadoes' homecoming.

The Hancock game will be the big test. "I have all the respect in the world for the Hancock coaching staff and their players," Gaudin stated. "We will face an established program which has been one of the most consistent winners at all levels on the Coast for many years."

Hancock plans to halt Bay High

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

Hancock High School assistant coach Andy Perniciaro will not let the cat out of the bag concerning the Hawks' secret plan of action against the 5-1 Bay High Tigers tomorrow.

"We have put a few new things in just for the Bay," he remarked.

Perniciaro reported the non-district game is one of the most important of the year's rivalries for the 3-4 Hawks.

"This should be an exciting game," he commented. "Bay

High has a team that literally outweighs us.

"This spring we played them when they were actually bigger than they are now. Since that time they lost a few key linemen, including Martin Murray. Compared to then, we are a little more evenly matched."

He said the outcome of that practice game was an intensely fought tie. "We intend to make this one a Hancock victory."

Defensively the Hawks will have to play an aggressive game, he commented. "We will have to stop their running back Dwayne Antoine. He is quick."

Offensively is where Perniciaro expects the battle lines to be drawn by the Hawks.

"Our offense is our strong point and their defense is theirs; so I expect this is where you will really see some action.

"They will probably give us some problems, but what we can't make up in size, we plan to make up in determination.

"Don't underestimate the heart of the Hawk team. Because Bay High is a rival team locally, may be the reason we overcome."

The Hawks will swoop down into Tiger territory at J.D. McCullough stadium tomorrow for kick off at 7:30 p.m.

Tiger football update

B, 9th, 7/8-grade teams ahead so far in season

BY TRACI BONNEY

After six weeks of play, the B team, 7/8 and 9th grade squads all are having winning seasons.

The B team has won both of its games this season, while the 9th graders stand at 4-1 overall, 2-0 conference, and the 7/8 grade team is 3-2 overall, 1-1 conference.

WEEK 5

Both the 7/8 and 9th grade

Tiger football squads closed the door on St. Stanislaus's hopes of scoring in crosstown rivalry games September 28-October 2.

The 9th grade Tigers, fresh from a 14-0 victory over St. John September 28, showed their Rock-A-Chaw counter-parts what they were made of October 1 by scoring 42 points and not allowing any SSC scores.

Reggie Williams and Malcolm Day scored the team's TDs against St. John, and in the St. Stanislaus game Williams rushed 202 yards on 10 carries and scored three touchdowns.

Coach Rocky Gaudin commented, "The entire defense played an outstanding game against St. Stanislaus. This marks the third shutout for the 9th grade team this year."

The 7th/8th grade team also defeated St. Stanislaus in a major shutout that day, handing the Rocks a 33-0 defeat.

"We played a very good game both offensively and defensively," Gaudin said. "The offense was led by James Benton with two touchdowns and two 2-point conversions; Jermaine

Rocks to host d'Iberville 11

BY ELLIS CUEVAS

Having played the last four games in a row on the road, the Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws will be at home Friday and are looking for a change in luck, as they play host to the d'Iberville Warriors.

Stanislaus has had a rocky road thus far this season in high school football, coming up on the short end of the score in six outings.

d'Iberville is one of the better teams in the conference, according to head coach Ken Lyons of SSC, who said, "d'Iberville has lost several games, but they have been to teams from big schools. They will be one of the best teams we face this year, and of course, I will be saying that next week, too, when we go against Pearl River Central."

Last week the rebuilding Rocks fumbled away a golden opportunity against Long Beach in a game they could have won.

As the season has progressed, Stanislaus has come up with two signal callers, who also share split end.

Both quarterbacks, senior Jeffrey Bishop and sophomore Nathan Middleton, can move the team and give big support to each other as split ends.

Stanley Chapman, at tail back is improving with each game, and has been picking up those extra yards on determined runs.

Sophomore Brandon Benoit, who was racking up some 100 plus yards a game until sidelined with a foot injury last week, showed some of his early season elusiveness, as he is getting back in the groove.

Lyons likes to run a balanced offense moving the ball via air or on the ground, and has that capability with either Bishop or Middleton at quarterback.

The offensive line has looked very sharp in most plays in recent weeks and appears to be improving as a team.

The young Stanislaus defenand are beginning to come together as a team.

In further commenting about d'Iberville, Lyons said, "They took their lumps a few years ago, and they are cashing in on their experience now."

It is doubtful if fullback Kris Minchew will see action Friday, Lyons stated.

Also on the Rock injury list, George Wichser may possibly see a little action near the end of the season, while Cameron Little is out for the season.

Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. at Rock-A-Chaw Stadium.

Bulldogs beat Hancock

The Lakeshore Bulldogs 7-8-year-old football team defeated Hancock 7-6, bringing their record to 1-2.

The winning touchdown was scored by Timmy Carter with the extra point added by James Wainwright. Carl Gibson is coach.

The Bulldogs will play Pearl River Central Saturday.

OLA wins double-header

Special to the Echo
Our Lady Academy's softball team won a double-header with Lumberton Oct. 8 at home on McDonald Field. OLA scored 15-5 in the first game and 16-6 in the second game.

The victory over Lumberton boosts OLA's record to five wins and three losses (all division games).

Patty Chevis pitched an outstanding game; both Patty and Tonya Chevis had strong hitting. Erica Lizana, Michelle Carbon, Melissa Matherne, Tonya Chevis, and Tara Carriage provided good defense in the infield.

The victory is due to an "overall great team effort," said Coach Paula McRaney. "We capitalized on weak pitching coupled with strong hitting."

OLA defeated North Forrest High School on Oct. 6 with a score of 19-11. The victory was attributed to 10 runs in a third inning rally.

Tonya Chevis, Danielle Bourgeois, and Claudia Flores were strong hitters in this game. Patty Chevis was the winning pitcher.

In earlier games, OLA was victorious over St. John and Seminary and defeated by St. John and Pass High.

Junior Rachel Pope is the team's manager. Ronnie Artigues helps as a parent assistant.

Jr. Tigers

Collins with one touchdown; Tank Williams with one touchdown; and M.J. Krankey with an extra-point kick.

"Standouts on defense were Desmond Berry, Krankey, Clay Necaise and Doug Smith. The defense tallied two safeties this week.

"We have improved a great deal since the early stages of the season. The kids have worked hard and we will continue to do so. We must have a good week of practice and a good effort this week to beat Poplarville."

The 1-0 B team had an open day.

Bay High Athletic Club Players of the Week were Benny Murphy on offense, Jimmy Strong on defense and Reggie Williams for the junior high. Pizza Hut Players of the Week were Kevin Gillum on offense and Jeff Hopgood on defense.

WEEK 6

The B team defeated St. Stanislaus 27-8 October 5. Scoring plays were by Xavier Lewis, Leroy Hawkins and Tristian Robertson. Yancey Mayfield, Michael Sanders, Billy Fries, Jamie Pate and Attiene McNeeley provided solid blocking, and the defense was led by Charles Hawkins, Gus Necaise and Benny Murphy.

The 9th grade squad had an open week, while the 7/8 grade team shut out Poplarville 14-0.

Gaudin recounted the game: "Offensively we played a good ballgame despite a poor showing in the first half. "We received the ball to open the second half and moved the ball to the 4-yard line before fumbling it away to Poplarville. This drive ate up all but 18 seconds of the third quarter. "After Poplarville turned the ball over on downs, we took it 52 yards and scored on a 5-yard run by James Benton. The 2-point conversion attempt failed.

"During this drive, we picked up a critical first down on a keeper by quarterback Tank Williams after Poplarville fumbled the ball deep in their own territory on their next possession and the Tigers recovered.

"Tank Williams scored on a quarterback sneak a few plays later, and James Benton made the 2-point conversion.

"Defensively we played a very good game throughout. Poplarville moved inside the 30 twice, but we held tough and prevented a score on both occasions."

Benton, Williams, Desmond Berry, Anthony Kennedy, Sean Byars-and-Zeke Boone-were cited as outstanding offensive players; Jermaine Collines, Clay Necaise, Berry, Ben Hicks, Nick Saucier, Tyrone Lewis, K.J. Krankey and Aaron Claybourn were named as defensive standouts.

Gaudin commented, "We have improved greatly with each game this season. We switched to the wing T this week on offense and the kids did a great job learning the new system.

"We worked hard preparing for Poplarville's wing T offense and the kids had a good week of practice.

"As I stated earlier in the year, we will continue to work hard for the remainder of the season and improve each week."

Bay High Athletic Club Players of the Week for Week 6 were Leroy Hawkins on offense, Yancey Mayfield on defense and Clevan Williams for the junior high. Pizza Hut Players of the Week were Brad Esteve for offense and Tristian Robertson for defense.

Bay AL Cowboys defeat Broncos, fall to Bulldogs

The Bay St. Louis American Legion 11-and-12-year-old Cowboys shut out the host Biloxi-Broncos Saturday 32-0, but lost to the Gulfview Bulldogs 26-13 in the second game of the day.

The Cowboys' offense struck quickly as they recovered the ball on a successful on-side kick, allowing them to score a touchdown on the first play of the game. Paul Farve took the ball on an end sweep from the 30-yard line to score.

The extra point was good on a pass from Jamie Cuevas to Stephen Peterman.

The defense held the Broncos and took possession on the 40-yard line, then scored as Jason McKay and Justin Wadsworth set up the TD with their running and ball handling abilities. Jamie Cuevas rolled out on a pass play to Tony Benton for the score; the extra point attempt was not good.

Offensive Coach Jay Cuevas commented, "Dimitri Shornick does a great job as center, aiding the offense in its victories."

Defensive coach Fred Peterman added, "Earl Fayard caught a tipped pass, saving a turnover at a crucial time of the game."

Peterman said the defense turned in a tough performance as Stoney Dorsett and Blake Werner caused a safety and Steven Knight forced a fumble that was recovered by Brandon Everett.

Ronald Brown did his share, sacking the quarterback for a 20-yard loss; Stephen Peterman prevented a touchdown with a tackle, and Tony Benton broke up a pass play as the Broncos were threatening to score.

Nick Foret, Patrick Martinez, Justin Wadsworth and Jace Bourgeois were outstanding on defense, Coach Peterman added.

In the Cowboys' next two TDs, Jamie Cuevas led the offense on passes to Tony Benton. Both extra points were scored on runs by Paul Farve.

The Gulfview Bulldogs upset the Cowboys 26-13 in the second game, played at Gulfview.

The Cowboys are now 3-1. They travel to Carriere to play Pearl River Central this Saturday.

"We hope to hold our own this week. We are excited to have the chance to show that our program has reached the point where we are able to compete with a program of the Hawks' caliber. To do well, we must play hard and execute all three aspects of the game, offense, defense and kicking," Gaudin added.

Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m.

Working together

Cooperation stressed at Gulfview open house

"All Hands Working Together Lighten the Load" is Gulfview Elementary's theme for the 1992-93 school year. Principal Donald North and assistant Janette White selected the motto to reflect their goal of educational excellence.

DOWN HOME

By Darlene Underwood
Hancock County
Home Economist

National Family and Community Education Week is Oct. 11-17

Family, community, education—three words that mean something to everyone. American values lie deep in these words. These words were selected to be part of the new name for the long-respected Extension Homemakers organization.

National Family and Community Education Week will be observed by members of the Hancock County FCE clubs beginning Oct. 11 through 17.

Family, community and education appropriately describe the organization once known as the Mississippi Extension Homemakers Council Inc. The national and state organizations voted this year to adopt the new name which would more accurately describe the mission of the organization.

Family is the No. 1 reason for the existence of both the national and the state association. The mission of the FCE is to strengthen families through programs of community leadership and continuing education and to promote the effectiveness of volunteer action and support.

Community is the outreach of the organization. FCE members are involved through club activities in community projects ranging from support of local fire departments to the initiation of county recycling programs. FCE clubs throughout the state strive to make their communities better places to live and work.

Education is how members reach the family and community. Local FCE clubs, county associations and the state association for Family and Community Education partner with the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service to share information on family, environmental, global and health issues, as well as on projects and programs of particular local interests.

Mississippi FCE members are participating as one of four pilot states in the national project "What About the Children?" The national association is working to promote the effective use of educational television programs in child care to prepare young children for school.

Additionally, they seek to increase awareness and provide resources to parents who wish to take a more active part in helping their children learn from television.

Songy artwork to be displayed at Casino Magic, Le Teagarden

Bay St. Louis artist Bob Songy is one of the first artists whose work will be displayed at Casino Magic.

His works, rendered on slate and having an environmental flavor, will be exhibited along with the works of Coast artist Sherry Phillips Carlson.

Songy's art also has inspired a masterpiece of a different sort.

His "Bounty," an original artwork which was commissioned for a festival commemorative poster print, is the basis for a new meal at Le Teagarden restaurant in Gulfport.

The artwork includes images of redfish, speckled trout, crabs and oysters. Chef Henry Hung Nguyen's meal will include the diner's choice of sauteed redfish or trout, topped with crabmeat and oyster sauce.

The original artwork, done in acrylic on old French Quarter slate with brass appointments, in a gold leaf wood frame, will be on display along with other Songy works at the restaurant.

In addition, Songy said, producer-publisher Bob Reetz is considering "Bounty" as the premiere piece in an international multi-level art print offer.

Crosby Arboretum holds annual native plant sale

The sale's offerings will include organically grown perennials from Wolf River Farms in Poplarville; aquatic Plants for sale include red-bud, dogwood, mayhaw, silverbell, bigleaf magnolia, black gum, red bay and pond cypress trees; fringe tree, oak-leaf hydrangea, star anise, mountain laurel, summer azalea, flame azalea, honeysuckle azalea and dwarf palmetto shrubs; and flowering perennials deertongue, pink coreopsis, Carolina jasmine, pine lily, coral honeysuckle and pitcher plants.

Your makeup's all wrong
Your face looks real long
Your panty hose creep

Your shoes are too light
Your hair's a constant fight.

Your earrings don't match
Your bra straps won't catch
Your fingernails are the wrong color

Fire Prevention Week

Students at Waveland Elementary mixed fun with learning October 6 during National Fire Prevention Week. While one group viewed a fire safety film, another took a ride on a Waveland Fire Department engine. (Above) Tom Weathersbee, a.k.a. "Gus", greeted those who had finished their ride, while (below) Mike Smith, alias "Smoky" traded high-fives with another group of students waiting to circle the school grounds on the fire engine. ## Ask the Veteran's Service Center

By Donald Mauffray
Veteran's Service Officer

Q. Are medals available for service in the Merchant Marines?

A. The Secretary of Transportation announced May 19, 1992, that new medals are available for civilian merchant seamen in recognition of their service in WWII, Korea and Vietnam. A medal also has been authorized for merchant mariners who served in the Persian Gulf in direct support of Operations Desert Shield and Desert Storm. Specific eligibility criteria apply.

Applicants must provide proper documentation of their Merchant Marine service in order to be considered for the medals to: Office of Maritime Labor and Training, Maritime Administration, Room 7302, 400 Seventh Street SW, Washington, D.C. 20590, Attn.: Awards

Q. May the VA authorize education benefits to active duty service members for pursuit of courses during "non-duty" time if the individual receives tuition assistance from the Armed Forces for the same courses or training?

A. No. As long as the individual is on active duty status, the bar applies, regardless of whether the individual has specifically assigned military duties.

Q. I am attending school full-time while on active duty with the military. I was not paid for the break between semesters. Please explain why other students in my school were paid for the break and I was not.

A. Payment can be authorized when the interval between terms at the same school is less than a full calendar month for students not on active duty. Payment of education benefits will not be authorized in the following situation:

1. Intervals between terms exceed 30 days.

2. Intervals between terms regardless of length, when the student transfers from one school to another and also changes programs.

3. Students on active duty.

4. Training at less than half-time on the last day of the term preceding the interval.

Q. Will my eligibility for VA medical care be affected by my insurances?

A. No. Eligibility criteria relate only to your military service and, in some cases, to income and type of medical service needed. Your eligibility for VA medical care does not depend on whether or not you have health insurance. However, the VA may file a claim on any health insurance you do have, even though your eligibility is not dependant on having insurance.
